

Addie Mae Waddles

November 22, 1934 - April 17, 2026

Addie Mae Waddles, age 91, of Austin, Texas, passed away peacefully on April 17, 2026. She was born on November 22, 1934, in Austin, Texas, United States.

Addie Mae was a loving woman of deep Christian faith who truly believed in God and lived her life as an example of kindness, compassion, and grace. She was always willing to help others in need and was known for being someone who would listen without judgment. Her caring spirit, gentle heart, and unwavering faith touched the lives of many who knew her.

She will be remembered for her beautiful, kind, and giving heart, as well as the love she shared so freely with her family, friends, and community.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Patricia Cleveland; her grandchildren, Dustin Williamson, Colby Williamson, and Alicia King; her great-grandchildren, Aurora Williamson, Payton Gonzalez, Hensley Williamson, Leah King, and Riker King; as well as nieces, nephews, and sisters-in-law who also went before her.

She is survived by her loving family: Patricia Cleveland, Dustin Williamson, Ashley, Aurora, Payton, Colby Williamson, Hensley, Alicia, Patrick, Leah, and Riker King.

Addie Mae will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Though our hearts are heavy, we take comfort in knowing that her faith was strong and her love will remain with us always.

We are lifting spirits by raising funds for Mimi's honorable burial, striving to reach our goal of $6,900. Every contribution, no matter the size, will be deeply cherished.

To many, she was more than a mother—she was a precious gem and a beacon of kindness and generosity. Her selfless devotion to helping others reflected her strong Christian values. Though her passing leaves a tremendous void, we celebrate her 91 years of spreading love and joy. She is now at peace, beginning a new chapter, and we take comfort in knowing we will meet again.
